

Report on Awareness about Organic Fertilizer: Need of the time in Village Matiabag, Gauripur, Dhubri (Date: 9th November, 2022)

1. Name of Resource person: Dr. Samuel Sheikh, Coordinator, Environment and Climate Cell, B.N. College.

2. A brief write up of the programme:

The aim of the program was to sensitize the gathering about the need of Organic Fertilizer in cultivation and stop using synthetic pesticides. Dr. Samuel Sheikh, Coordinator, Environment and Climate Cell, B.N. College and Dr. Puranjay Mipun, Coordinator, Eco Club, B.N. College, Dhubri along with Mr. Mridul Ghosh, Nursery Technician and the students of the college participated in the programme organized by UBA in collaboration with Eco Club and Environment and Climate Cell, B. N. College, Dhubri, Assam on 9th November, 2022 at 2:30 pm.

(Dr. Samuel Sheikh, Coordinator during Lecture in the Workshop)

They are also informed about their ethical duties and roles to provide healthy crops to the society.

Ten number of students of B.Sc. 1st Sem (Honours: Zoology) have participated in the Awareness cum Training Programme on “Organic Fertilizer: Need of the time” in Village Matiabag, Gauripur, Dhubri” where they demonstrated how to produce organic composts among the farmers of the village. About 50 numbers of farmers of the village actively participated in the programme.

Coordinator
Environment and Climate Cell
B.N. College, Dhubri